Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement filed 3/18/04 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1), which requires the following: (1) a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office; (2) U.S. patents and U.S. patent application publications listed in a section separately from citations of other documents; (3) the application number of the application in which the information disclosure statement is being submitted on each page of the list; (4) a column that provides a blank space next to each document to be considered, for the examiner's initials; and (5) a heading that clearly indicates that the list is an information disclosure statement. The information disclosure statement has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-11 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for making/using the claimed invention, does not reasonably provide enablement for making and using the claimed invention. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. It's unclear to the examiner on how the how the interfaces will be configured, what is the logic and how the logic is being configured the claim language relies on the interfaces configured and logic configured to obtain, link, and update the content, but the specification did not define the logic nor the configuration.

Claims 1-11 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The interfaces configured, and the logic configured were not defined in the original filed specification and therefore treated to be new matter.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 2164

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-11 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claimed invention has been rejected since it's vague and indefinite since the specification did not provide any support for the claimed invention.

For the lack of support for the claimed invention and for the indefiniteness no art has been applied on the merit in this office action. Applicant is required to clarify the issues listed above.

Response to Amendment

Applicant argues that all Groups include the same core novel elements.

Examiner respectfully disagrees. since the claimed invention in each group is directed toward different subclass as disclosed in the restriction requirement dated 9/13/05. Where the claimed invention in the groups I-V can be used together but they are distinct from each other.
